AFRICA, old and new

Africa offers a diverse range of experiences. It boasts stunning landscapes, including vast savannahs, deserts, tropical rainforests, and breathtaking coastlines.

It is home to iconic landmarks such as Mount Kilimanjaro, Victoria Falls, the Serengeti, and the Sahara Desert.

Africa is renowned for its rich biodiversity and incredible wildlife. Safaris in countries like Kenya, Tanzania, South Africa, Botswana, and Namibia offer the chance to witness majestic animals such as elephants, lions, giraffes, rhinos, leopards, hipos, and many others in their natural habitats.

Observe mountain gorilla, witness a million wildebeest gallop across the Serengeti during the migration, this continent offers the privilege of travel at its most extreme.

Old and new, from Livingstone to you.

SAFARI STYLE

Africa gets in your blood. It infects you. Safari means “journey” in Swahili, and was adopted to refer to the mobile camping excursions of Persian and Indian traders.

East Africa is where first safari was enshrined in romance, initially by adventurers, later by writers, photographers and film makers. It is also where the modern-day version of the safari experience began.

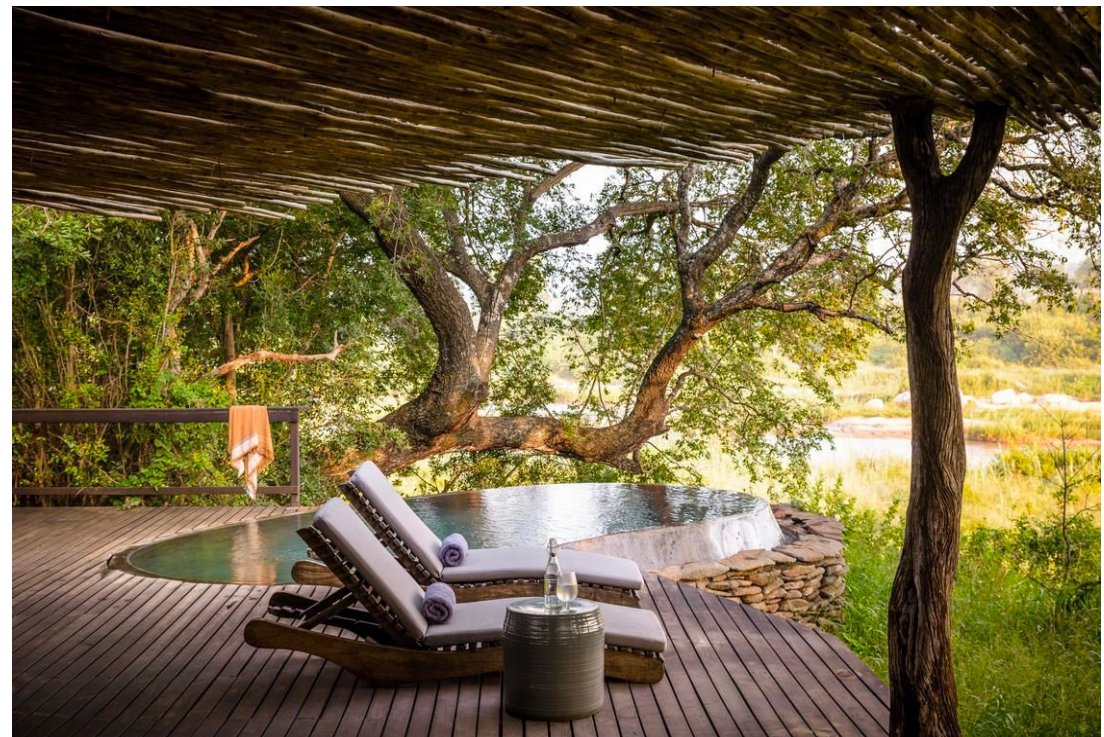

What is the spell that Africa, and safari in particular, casts over us? Part of it is being immersed in timeless natural beauty, from the dramatic deserts of Namibia or the vast plains of Serengeti in Tanzania to the watery world of Botswana’s Okavango Delta.

CAPE TOWN, SOUTH AFRICA

South Africa has it all: the vibrant Cape Town, the gastronomy of the winelands, and the wildlife. South Africa has numerous other private game reserves and national parks that offer exceptional wildlife encounters. Whether you choose to visit a renowned national park or explore smaller reserves, South Africa's wildlife will undoubtedly leave you in awe.

MOZAMBIQUE & MADAGASCAR

Mozambique and Madagascar provide a mix of natural wonders, cultural experiences, and adventure opportunities, making them intriguing destinations for travelers and adventurers

COOL ESCAPES INDIAN OCEAN

The Maldives, framed by palms and with sparkling turquoise sea, nowhere does beachside bliss like the Maldives. Those magical islands still dominate as the world's most desirable seven star versions of rest and recuperation.

In the Seychelles lush tropical vegetation and granite boulders seemingly tumble into the waves.

Mauritius remains authentic to its rich Creole culture; it is where India meets Africa with a dash of France.

MALDIVES IN LUXURY

ASIA, tradition and modernity

Japan, from ultra-modern Tokyo to bucolic Beppu, the art of Japanese living offers a visionary path forward. With its captivating contrast of traditional and modern, Japan epitomizes in its ability to ignite the imagination of even the most jaded traveler. Tradition and modernity go hand in hand in one of the countries with the most personality on the Asian continent.

India dazzles with colour and light. Sri Lanka is India lite, offering a marvellously exotic culture, the tea plantations and the faded colonial charm of Galle, the island is a richly coloured jewel in the Indian Ocean crown.

As the world becomes homogenized, the culture of Southeast Asia remains deliciously exotic. To watch the sunrise over Java's fabled Borobudur, the largest Buddhist structure on earth, is to experience part of life's most precious offerings.

To see the intha people using their leas to row fishing boats on Lake Inle, to be alone in Angkor Wat at dawn in Cambodia, to learn the secrets of pho in the backstreets of Hanoi and hear monks riding flying tigresses in Bhutan: this is Asia now.

Let's experience Asia within Aman.

THE AMERICAS

Architecture, art and dance inspire the buzzing cities from LA to Buenos Aires, where the people are infused with an energising sense of ebullience.

Natural wonders, immense rainforest, wilderness and abundant wildlife, Mayan and Incas highways, are some of the keystones of the Americas.

Chile and Argentina, vast open plains, dramatic icy peaks and Patagonia, a must-to-go-to.

Wildlife extraordinary of the rarer kind. Iguanas, butterflies, birds and darling sloths in Costa Rica.

In the desert landscape of canyons, mesas, ridges and gorges, in the original Wild West, Amangiri and the tented Pavilions of Camp Sarika offer an inspiring welcome to one of the world's most dramatic secluded settings.

ECUADOR & THE GALAPAGOS

Ecuador, Andean heights, friendly markets, cloud forest, and the Amazon.

The Galapagos, a wonder of the natural world.
